

Fairy Tale Tower

The towers along the Amalfi coast have an interesting history dating back to the 13th century when they were built to warn residents of impending pirate raids. This primary location in Positano provides the guests with the ultimate in stress free luxurious accommodation. Divided into three apartment areas consisting of 7 bedrooms accommodating up to 11 people our “Fairytale” Tower also offers you a private beach, balconies, which allow guests to find their own little get away, as well as al fresco dining areas. Truly a piece of paradise in paradise

The villa is just a few minutes walk to the main beaches as well as the town. If you wish we can also arrange for a chef to bring you the finest of Italian cooking in your villa and arrangements can be made for the delivery of groceries should you prepare to do your own cooking. Internet access is provided and all rooms other than one have airconditioning.

